

IMOGEN CLARK

author

An Unwanted Inheritance

Book Club Questions

- What would you have done with the money? How much sympathy do you have with Caroline's point of view?
- Ellie seems to wander through life with her eyes closed. Is her blind trust of James understandable/excusable?
- Which side of the line do you think Tony walked along? Is he honest or not? Is honesty a black or white concept?
- Not spoiling reputations seems to be important to all the characters to some degree or other. How much does worrying about what others might say alter how they all act?
- Max is caught between his wife and his siblings. Would you have done anything differently in his place?
- How do you feel about the representation of parental relationships in the book? Does how Tony and Valerie parent influence the way Max and Ellie are bringing their children up?
- How do you see the family's future? Do you think they can ever go back to the way things were at the start of the book?